

The Puy Mary

From the top of the Puy Mary, the largest European volcano and listed as a "Grand Site de France", you have an unspoilt 360°-view of the Cantal and the seven glacier valleys.

The regulations

"The Fools of Puy Mary" is open for everyone starting at the age of 18 years who realizes in one day two, three or four different climbs of Col du Puy Mary/Col du Pas de Peyrol (1588 m) there and back with his bike with only his own muscular strength.

The biker who achieves two different climbs becomes FADASSOU* (6 possibilities).

The biker who achieves three different climbs becomes FADA (4 possibilities).

The biker who achieves four different climbs becomes GRAND FADA.

*Fadassou: a diminutive of fada typical in the Auvergne.

The registration

The registration must reach the responsible correspondent, together with the payment (€10), at least three weeks before the attempt.

Payment: only bank transfer on the bank account is accepted.

IBAN: BE18 1030 4602 6265; BIC: NICABEBB;
titular: Les Fadas du Puy Mary.

The attached member will then receive a frame-plate and a check card which he collects the necessary stamps and the hours of transit.

Starting places* and the 4 climbs

Apchon

altitude: 1055 m

distance: 22,5 km

climbing: 668 m (there) + 120 m (back) = 788 m

way: D49, D62, D680 (in common with Murat from Col de Serre)

on this climb: Col de Serre (1335 m) & Col d'Eylac (1375 m)

Mandailles – Saint-Julien

altitude: 940 m

distance: 12 km

climbing: 654 m (there) + 0 m (back) = 654 m

way: D17

on this climb: Col de Redondet (1531 m)

Murat

altitude: 915 m

distance: 22,5 km

climbing: 829 m (there) + 155 m (back) = 984 m

way: D3, D680 (in common with Apchon from Col de Serre)

on this climb: Col d'Entremont (1210 m), Col de Serre (1335 m) & Col d'Eylac (1375 m)

Salers

altitude: 950 m

distance: 20,5 km

climbing: 732 m (there) + 97 m (back) = 829 m

way: D680

on this climb: Col de Neronne (1241 m)

\ Starting at the top is also possible!*

Places to mark

1. At the beginning of each climb: shop, post-office, city-hall, etc...

2. Only one stamp on top (Pas de Peyrol)

If it's not possible to receive a stamp, it may be replaced by a photo. We further rely on the honesty of the participant.

Safety

The participants must respect the highway code just like any temporary measures and a lighting have if this would be necessary.

The participants are required to have a liability insurance. The organizer can never be held liable in case of accident.

Indorsement

After delivering the stamped check card the new member receives back his check card with the hierarchical sequence number on it together with his certificate and a souvenir.

